

Bureaucratic Speed Dating

1. Take out anything you need and put your backpack on the East wall quickly
2. Make a name tag with your agency on it
 - a. Red is for Cabinet positions
 - b. Blue is for independent agencies and regulatory agencies
3. Find a seat and make sure someone is sitting across from you
 - a. This is your first date ;)
4. You get 60 seconds to tell your partner about your agency
 - a. They can ask questions!
 - b. As they talk, try to summarize the case in one sentence
5. After two minutes, high five your partner, thank them
6. Find a new partner!

Reflection

1. What agency did you “meet” that was compatible with yours? Explain.
 2. What agency did you find most interesting? What was interesting about that agency?
 3. Did you find this activity to be helpful in understanding how bureaucracies work? Why or why not?
 4. What did you like best about this activity?
 5. What would you change when we do this in the future?
 6. Any other comments?
- 